TOWNE ALKE

"Just for Fun" By RAS BERRY

Those who have not saw Geo. Probert's new nose-bled necktie have missed one of the sights of the balliwick.

Booby Vonderahe ain't much of an electrician. He says that Bartlett ordered knob and spool wiring took out so Booby could get exercise and that isn't any joke.

Having took a peek at Mars through the Mt. Wilson spyglass Chas. Vonderahe, the one of the brothers that ain't working, is getting maps made and plans to subdivide the planet.

Mac McMillan who sells oil well supplies was out to the golf course the other day and says to Sam Levy I'll beat you home and Sam says No you won't neither so they started out and when Sam came to the part where Western Creek that is closed off Mac passes Sam and starts out lickety split on the detour and W. Post jumps out of Sam's car and lifts up the barrier and Sam drives straight through to Torrance and as W. Post opined that proves the superiority of mind over matter.

Roy Winters has been looking at them pictures in the Examiner where they show a girl giving a stranger Lewis the rough and tumble and Roy says while a gal was getting them bolts on a guy as big as the stranger the guy could bust her in the beizer and knock her for a row of warped ironing boards.

Mrs. McGooferly landlady of a hotel down to Escondido tells Dick Smith and Hart Nash that when Geo. Proctor and Bev Smith and Ras was down there over Labor Day that Geo. kept the whole hotel awake all night snoring. Geo. says it wasn't him but the surf. Fred Palmer who was down there at the time says it sounded to him like a dinosaur cooing to its prehistoric mate.

Sam Rappaport tells this one. Two guys talking in a hotel lobby. Says one: "I see where Muskowitz makes $10,000 in Chicago in six months." "I don't believe it," says the other bimbo. Just then a third gink strolls up. "I was just saying," says the first one, "that Muskowitz makes $10,000 in Chicago in six months. Am I right or wrong?" Says the third bozo, "You're right only you made four mistakes. In the first place it wasn't in Chicago but Cincinnati. In the second place he didn't make it in six months. He made it in three. In the third place it wasn't $10,000 he made but $4,000. And in the fourth place he didn't make it, he lost it."
